

1920, ch. 56, sec. 8.

429. In addition to the powers expressly conferred by this Act, the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown shall have such other powers as are incident thereto, or a necessary consequence to the powers herein conferred, which shall include the right to pass all ordinances not inconsistent with the powers granted by this Act that may be necessary for the protection and preservation of said lake, or any portion thereof, and to attach reasonable penalties thereto for violations thereof, and from time to time to repeal, alter and amend said ordinance.

PENSIONS.

1927, ch. 105.

430. The Mayor and Council of Hagerstown are hereby empowered and authorized, whenever in their discretion the efficiency of the Fire Department of Hagerstown may require it, to retire upon the recommendation of the Chief Fire Marshal any regular driver, tiller or chauffeur of any of the fire apparatus of said city, appointed by the various Fire Companies and paid by the city, and to pay him for life a sum of money on monthly installments, equal to one-half of the compensation allowed him at the date of his retirement, provided, however, that such regular driver, tiller or chauffeur shall have served faithfully as a driver, tiller or chauffeur in the fire department for not less than fifteen years or he shall have been permanently disabled in the discharge of his duty as driver, tiller or chauffeur in the fire department of Hagerstown. The Chief Fire Marshal shall, before making such recommendations, procure and file with the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, a certificate signed by at least two reputable physicians of said city, that the person proposed to be retired has been thoroughly examined by them and that he is incapable of performing active duty in the capacity in which he is employed.

MARKET.

1924, ch. 363, sec. 1.

431. The Mayor and Council of Hagerstown is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow a sum of money not exceeding One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary, upon the faith and credit of Hagerstown, as hereinafter provided, and to issue and sell coupon bonds to raise said sum of money, which said issue of bonds shall be known and designated as "Hagerstown Market Building Bonds," and the money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used exclusively for the purchasing of a lot or lots as a site for a Market House or Building, and also, for the construction, erection and maintenance of a Market House or Building on said lot or lots.

1924, ch. 363, sec. 2.

432. The said Mayor and Council are hereby authorized and empowered to acquire by gift, grant, purchase, lease (whatever the duration of
